Our Suar Wood waterfall coffee table boasts a sleek and minimalist design. Crafted from a single continuous piece of wood, it features a smoothly curved surface that flows seamlessly from the tabletop down to the floor. This elegant and eye-catching piece adds a touch of modern sophistication to any living space. Suar Wood is a tropical hardwood primarily found in Indonesia. It is known for its distinctive grain patterns, which can vary from straight and uniform to more irregular and wavy. Suar Wood is highly prized for its durability, rich color and natural beauty. It is also favored for its sustainability as it is harvested from plantation-grown trees.
